1 Introduction

I am a student of SRM University, BTech second year, currently enrolled in full-time Computer Science Bachelors Programme.

1.1 What according to me sets me apart

1. Creativity : I am not the kind who goes by the book - I like to create my own style, work in my own way after gaining the essential knowledge. I can come up with ideas of a new cover for an old book.

2. Perseverence : I have been told many a time that I am stubborn, but I take that positively, since it is my stubbornness that keeps me going through any task, however fun or boring, till I reach the end of it.

3. Hunger for more : I always feel as though my list of skills just aren't enough and so try to imbibe more and more. I believe in gaining an all-spanning knowledge before settling for expertise in any particular topic.

4. Humility : At all times I try to maintain my humility in all situations, as also respect and second others' opinions even if they are varied from and distinct from those of my own.

5. Intuition : I have been coding since I was 14- A fact that gives me insight into a piece of code even if I have never seen it before or without knowing much about how it works, its not magic, maybe just a consequence of daily practice !
